

TEA

When You're Hot, You're Hot

Is it art, or is it a drink? Captivate conference-goers with our hand-sewn flowering teas from around the globe. Watch exquisitely designed tea-holding fabric buds transform into vibrant blossoms inside our sparkling glass teapots, elevating the simple experience of ordering tea into an engaging aesthetic delight.

Beyond delicious, these tantalizing teas need no sweetener, though we will offer honey for those with a real sweet tooth. Steeped to bring out natural essences, each cup is tantamount to an unofficial dose of aroma therapy.

Invite your guests to have a seat, and watch how the flower – as well as your conversation – unfolds. This brain teaser is a perfect place to start.
